Dear The United States Senate,

We are pleased to present you with this petition affirming this statement:

"The CFPB was created to address the huge problem of abusive and deceptive banking and lending, which caused an epidemic of foreclosures, saddled millions of Americans with unmanageable debt, and triggered an ongoing economic calamity.

Under Rich Cordray's leadership, the CFPB has ably begun to fulfill its mission by returning nearly half a billion dollars to consumers cheated by credit card companies; moving to end the era of mortgages designed to rake in up-front fees before they self-destruct; standing up for students and families trapped in high-cost education loans; and protecting military families against illegal foreclosures and deceptive education-loan practices. It is doing all this and more, while operating with refreshing candor and transparency and outreach to the public, and with steady oversight from Capitol Hill.

Director Cordray has been re-nominated to serve a full term. His leadership has won praise from Republicans and Democrats, and from bankers and consumer advocates. And yet, for two years, a group of Senators has held his appointment hostage..

To those Senators we say: It is time to change your position. We need the CFPB to be effective. We urge you to reject the use of the confirmation process - and the filibuster - to undo legislation passed by wide majorities in the House and Senate, signed by the President, and supported by large majorities of the public.
The choice before the Senate is simple: allow an up-or-down vote on this nomination, or open the door to more of the slippery financial practices that the CFPB is working hard to prevent. That would be terrible not only for consumers but for responsible lenders and the broader economy.

Attached is a list of individuals who have added their names to this petition, as well as additional comments written by the petition signers themselves.

Sincerely,
James Lardner

It is getting harder every day for ordinary Americans to know where their money is going, both in the government and when we have to keep paying for abig banks to become mega banks and a small number of people can rake in outrageous fortunes because they have the wherewithal to tie up the market in ways regular folks cannot. And then they don't pay their fair share in taxes. I am sure it is a small number of these super wealthy groups but we need accountability and transparency, starting with the confirmation of Mr Cordray and continuing the funding for the CFPB. And continuing with the undoing of the undemocratic Citizens United contributions which is simply a sham for buying votes.

The republican party couldn't be more obvious in their contempt shown towards individual Americans when they work to destroy the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. Wall Street has been allowed to commit numerous criminal acts that have ruined the lives of many Americans and society in general, all without so much as a slap on the hand, much less anyone going to jail. This is in sharp contrast to how individuals are treated when they break the law. Consumers need some sort of protection against this lawlessness and the republicans blocking the confirmation of Rich Cordray need to stand down and let the confirmation of Rich Cordray move forward so the CFPB can do its job!

The citizens (and voters) of the entire country are getting more and more upset with a Congress that refuses to honor its mandate to represent the wishes of their constituents. The Economic system is in ruins and the stock market saw a major calamity and IS still suffering BECAUSE OF THE UNETHICAL, DECEPTIVE LENDING PRACTICES OF VARIOUS BANKS AND FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS. MORTGAGES THAT HELPED TO STIFLE AND STINT GROWTH OF THE AMERICAN ECONOMY!! ALLOW RICHARD CORDRAY AND THE CFPB TO CONITNUE BEING EFFECTIVE FOR THE CONSUMER AS WELL AS THE ECONOMY! SENATE, TAKE THE CONSTRAINTS OFF OF CORDRAY AND THE CFPB SO THEY CAN CONTINUE A WORTHY FIGHT AGAINST FORECLOSURES, CREDIT CARD COMPANIES AND THE HIGH COST OF EDUCATION LOANS!!!

You are the most despicable human beings on earth. You have so much power and money and you still want more. I'm getting tired of writing letters that fall on deaf ears and so are many other Americans. One day the 99% will rule this country and when we do, we will not forget the corporate whores that tried to destroy our country.

If the banking industry would clean up their act on their own, we wouldn't need this. Instead, they spend money buying Senators and Congressmen to oppose people who stand up for us against them. Our Senators need to show us that they are not for sale, and are willing to do the right thing. Allow Rich Cordray and the CFPB to do its job. Confirm him now.

I had a credit score of 720 and then when Obama's new Credit Card laws went into effect - the interest I was paying was 4% and jumped to 15%-29% the night before the law went into effect. Now the CC won't deal with you (help with CC interest rates) and drop Credit Limits which took my 720 Credit Score down to the 500's as my "debt to credit" now looked like I was almost maxed out when before they lowered my credit limit I was only maybe 1/4 - now I am only dollars away from being max out and have BAD CREDIT. THE BANKS, WALL STREET, INSUR COMPANIES - ALL OF THEM SCREWED THE AMERICAN PUBLIC WHO BAILED THEM OUT OF THEIR OWN GAME/MESS!!!!!!!!!!!!

PETITION STATEMENT The CFPB was created to address the huge problem of abusive and deceptive banking and lending, which caused an epidemic of foreclosures, saddled millions of Americans with unmanageable debt, and triggered an ongoing economic calamity. Under Rich Cordray's leadership, the CFPB has ably begun to fulfill its mission by returning nearly half a billion dollars to consumers cheated by credit card companies; moving to end the era of mortgages designed to rake in up-front fees before they self-destruct; standing up for students and families trapped in high-cost education loans; and protecting military families against illegal foreclosures and deceptive education-loan practices. It is doing all this and more, while operating with refreshing candor and transparency and outreach to the public, and with steady oversight from Capitol Hill. Director Cordray has been re-nominated to serve a full term. His leadership has won praise from Republicans and Democrats, and from bankers and consumer advocates. And yet, for two years, a group of Senators has held his appointment hostage.. To those Senators we say: It is time to change your position. We need the CFPB to be effective. We urge you to reject the use of the confirmation process - and the filibuster - to undo legislation passed by wide majorities in the House and Senate, signed by the President, and supported by large majorities of the public. The choice before the Senate is simple: allow an up-or-down vote on this nomination, or open the door to more of the slippery financial practices that the CFPB is working hard to prevent. That would be terrible not only for consumers but for responsible lenders and the broader economy.

Miss Doris Thomas is a victim of wrongful foreclsoure by Washington Mutual / JP Morgan Chase Bank. I am seeking financial restition by the Department of Justice. The banks created this economic fiasco. I had equity in my home and they reneged on my loan at the last minute. I am seeking a brand new mortgage free home and restitution for the humiliation, stress, and displacement from my permanent residence at 131 Parker Avenue, Woodlynne, New Jersey 08107.

How do these people continue to commit crimes against the populace and Congress wants to let them go? Must be money changing pockets. Congress is beginning to look more and more corrupt. Closing the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau only allows the abuse of the American public. There are plenty of committees that have long outlived their usefulness that could be closed and save the American taxpayer money and cut the cost of government, but those aren't being closed because Congress is getting paid to do nothing on those committees.

I support this agency. Keep it funded and do nothing to weaken it's powers. Or expect the voters to remember what you have done. We need to have some bankers jailed at the federal level. No more "too big to fail". These Senators don't care about the American people. Do bankers really need all those up front fees, etc.

It's becoming increasingly obvious to your electorate that you are being bought and paid for by big business. That will not be tolerated and you will be voted out of office if you do not carry out the tenets of your office which is to pass along the will of your constituency and legislate to protect their best interests.

We need this consumer protection from you, Congress. You've already voted to squash the bill that prevented you from doing "insider trading". Most of you own stock in Keystone XL Pipeline. We cannot trust you to represent us as noted in the expanded background check for gun purchases, altho' 90% of us favored it. No trust, you are almost all corrupt!

I am a professional who studied with a lot of effort and with much excitement, thinking that with the title, i was going to be able to get a good job and being able to pay my studies but each day has become more difficult to get a good job and each day the interests increase debt becoming difficult to achieve with the debt. I have a high debt to my student loan and each day it makes me more difficult to comply with this debt and that with the interest each year is increasing more debt and makes me more difficult to pay. In addition I have problems to get a job that will let me earn enough to pay my debts now I am working a half-time and I am not enough to pay the debts. I appreciate the changes that they can achieve to help all those that we are presenting this situation. Thank you for take into account in this campaign, and I hope to be able to resolve this situation. Thank you Ana Fleites.

Our children should not be taught that the only way to be safe is for everyone to carry a gun, that the only answer to violence is more violence!! What if a stray bullet hits one of our children or another teacher or other school personnel??? We can make our schools safer without everyone packing a gun like the old West!!! One of the classes that should be taught in every school in our country is conflict resolution, peace, respect & honor which our grandchildren & now great grandchildren are taught in Montessori School every single day!!! Every child needs to learn these virtues since many of them do not learn them at home & too many are playing violent video games & watching violent TV programs!! This business of keeping bureaus leaderless is treason pure and simple. If the Senate will not do its duty than the President has my permission to fill this and any other position as he sees fit. You got a lot of troublemakers over there. Cruz is one of them and McConnell and Ann Rand Paul are the two others. Since their working to undermine the USA and the American family they should not recieve a pay check from us any more than the Nazi leadership should. Yours truly Glen P. Ebert

Cordray needs to be confirmed. Anything else would be uncivilized! He is trying to do the right thing for the people and we need more folks like him in positions of power. Ohio residents know this because he made a positive impact in this community and now it's time to take his efforts National so that ALL USA citizens will be able to be positively impacted by his policies as we have here in Ohio.

The Senate should do its job and allow an up or down vote on Richard Cordray's appointment as head of the DFPB. He has demon- strated leadership in addressing the problem of abusive and decept- ive banking and lending which has caused the recent economic crisis, affecting businesses and families across this nation.

The Senate and Congress need to get to work and pass tax reform. This includes tax increases and tax cuts along with holding the banks responsible for the foreclosure crisis. We as taxpayers deserve the same level of protection that was afford the banks, if not more. The independent foreclosure review confirmed my forclosure was found to be in violation and I am to be considered in the bank settlement.. This gives me little pleasure since they took my home and my family and I have been displaced. Rich Cordray must be confirm or we will continue to lose more and when the taxpayers lose, The United States loses. Deborah J. Castillo

Until we have a financial investment system we can trust, I like millions of other Americans will look for alternative investment strategies. Peer to Peer loans, for example, will PERMANTLY claim significant parts of Banking business if the crooks go unchecked and unpunished. Like termites eating away at the foundation of a building, they have no idea they are bringing down the entire structure on their own heads. Reform or loose your customer base, forever.

I am surprised that you are supporting the anti-gay forces. As a gay Democratic Floridan I believe that the time has come for every American must have equal rights including marriage. I didn't realize that you are an ally of the bible thumping bigots who believe in myths. Take a stand and stand up, reject the lies of those who want a state religion and only want to grant rights to some Americans rather than all Americans.

To everyone: Welcome to the Fascist States of America, brought onto us by the giant banksters, big corporations, and their Tea Party Republican buddies. Unless we vote out and get rid of these Anti-American Republicans, the USA will surely fall from within, and we're seeing it as it's happening right now! Ask yourselves this question: Since Pres. Eisenhower, have any Republicans ever done anything good for the people or the country? I can't think of anything myself. Grandma

It's becoming increasingly obvious to all Americans,that [MANY] of our representative are not intrested in the business of protecting the [Rights] or well being of the ppl that they have been given the privilege of representing here in this great nation, that being said ....The ppl are yearning for major changes too the [Legislators] throughout come Nov.14',we are mobilizing as we speak to effect these changes across the country,it has come to our collective attention that the [Voice] of the American ppl's will is secondary w/respect to the [Special interest] lobby and their agendas.....Let this serve as a notice too all that have become entrenched in their indifferents to the will of the majority of the ppl's wishes will not go unnoticed @ the ballot box !!.

The financial avalanche from the housing loan bust starting in 2007 effects me every day. I will never recover my business or my house. I lost everything I worked for during over 20 years of my life. The bought out WHORES in the Senate give honest prostitutes a bad name. Especially [re]publicans, should do something worthwhile for a change. You are disgusting, starting with Harry Reid and then the nitwit [re]publicans who are off their meds, e.g. McCain, the still in the closet Lindsay Graham, Rand (named after a woman) Paul and of course ALL from the the American Taliban South, who are just plain bigots. You are all disgusting most Americans and bringing down even the decent ones, e.g. Merkley, Sanders, Warren and a few others. Get better.

I can't believe that an organization formed to protect consumers from ABUSE is controversial. The Republican party obviously did not listen to the voters in the election. Quit playing politics and move forward to solve the problems facing the people not the corporations who are doing very well!.

How dare the Republicans try to undermine the CFPB! Don't they understand that we the people want our rights protected, and we are so tired of being pushed around by Wall Street & big banks and anyone else who can lobby Congress and get special treatment to feed their greed. Republicans even agree that Richard Cordray is competent to run the CFPB. It's just hypocrisy and self-interest that keep them from doing what is RIGHT for Americans. GOP - please re-think your stupidity, for your own sake, if not for ours, or you'll lose big-time in 2014 & 2016.

W ell the middle class is being sent down the river. The politicians changed the banking laws to protect the top one percent at the expense of the middle class and the poor citizens of America.The politicians sent all the jobs out of the country resulting of millions Americans being laid off. After everyone is laid off the Republicans tell American citizens are too lazy to work so cut the middleclass and poor benefits. The Senators especially the republican just want to cut programs for the middle class like social security,no gun control because politicians get billions from NRA for their campaigns. The Senate bailed out the banks and tell everyone there is no money have to balance budget on the backs of poor and middleclass God help us if the minium wage is increased the Republicans tell everyone there will be no more work ;the country is done for.Why were they not worried about out sourcing jobs to China ? Was it because only the poor and middleclass would be with out jobs not the one percent without jobsI am not the one percent, but I will tell you please do your job honestly and confirm Rich Cordray.

Both the Republican & Democrat parties are going in the wrong direction. To save & preserve all USA Constitutional amendments & citizen rights, life, marriage, liberty, entrepreneurial ranking, credit rating, stock & bond markets, the $, Medicare, Social Security, Medicaid & the police, fire, k-12 public schools, libraries, military, defense & homeland security budgets while CUTTING government spending, debt & present taxes without causing inflation or high interest rates; ALL State & Federal parties would be winners if they would compromise with the following strategies: Create good paying American jobs with good benefits for American citizens by repealing all sales/consumption taxes & replace the lost revenue with an import tax/tariff on imported labor (India & the Philippines) & manufactured goods (Mexico & Communist China, North Korea & Vietnam). (Burn the USA Free Trade Agreements because USA citizens are the world's #1 consumer/customer. Stop the USA's nation building because this world peace strategy is exporting USA wealth & increasing USA debt.) Increase the federal income tax deduction from $5700 (2010) to $15000 for American citizens. Increase the IN state income tax exemption for non-dependent adults from $1000 to $5000, up to $15,000; depending on disabilities and age. (OR, burn both the federal & state individual income tax codes & give each income receiving American citizen a $50000 standard deduction while keeping current dependent exemptions. Then tax the next $50000 at 2%, the next $50000 at 4%, the next $50000 at 6%, etc. until the federal & state budgets are balanced. My strategic plan will cut government spending & increase tax revenues. Burn USA business & corporate income tax codes & place a "fair tax" or "flat tax" (with a standard deduction of $5Million) on ALL USA business & corporate sales,/revenue/income/earnings including foreign after deducting compensation and benefits for American citizens' labor; except for CEO's and their immediate subordinates). All standard deductions & exemptions should be adjusted for inflation. Collect an export tax on natural resources/commodities such as oil & grains. Repeal all millionaires' individual & business/new development/construction tax incentives such as tax abatement, tax increment financing (TIF), grants, deductions, credits, industrial revenue bonds, subsidies, earmarks, loopholes & other corporate welfare that have become entitlements & that are shifting business costs & taxes to other taxpayers, exporting American jobs or creating poverty wage American jobs. (OR, require these corporate welfare kings to pay a living wage, minimum wage of $15/hour (2010) with good benefits; adjusted for inflation). Repeal IN "right to work legislation". The USA needs the union wage & benefits to create more demand for "made in America"; but, eliminate unproductive, inefficient & costly union work rules & idle time. Repeal IN tax cuts for corporate/business income (25%), inventory, property & inheritance (OR, increase the exemption to $15 million for inheritance taxes). These are either "incentives" to steal jobs from another USA state, county, city &/or town or tax cuts for millionaires. They are not creating good paying jobs in America & the government treasuries need the tax revenue to balance their budgets. Only give non-millionaires more tax cuts to increase demand for "MADE in America". Repeal EITC, EDGE & EDIT. These are corporate welfare. Eliminate all economic development and redevelopment commissions. They are too expensive and create "crony capitalism". Collect mandatory impact fees (IN code: 36-7-4-1300, only infrastructure today); but, expand the code to collect mandatory impact fees (MIF) on NEW homes sold at a price less than the USA median price of $224,759 (Bloomberg Business Week July 2, 2012 p. 42) & NEW retail & warehouse businesses for schools, libraries, parks, police & fire. MIF will cut taxes & government debt. MIF can be included in a thirty year mortgage keeping monthly home and business payments reasonable. I am so tired of the obstructionism in the Republican party. As a lifelong Republican I finally had to change my affiliation because of their behavior. STOP THIS NONSENSE AND GET BACK TO DOING THE BUSINESS OF THE GOVERNMENT. A big part of that is to protect people from predators which is precisely what the CFPB does. It protects us from intentionally bad business practices which aim to deceive the less educated of this country.

The people in this country, after 2008, are still writhing in financial pain (which contributes to stress--reduced health/poss. no insurance; foreclosure/homelessness; hunger; needing services they don't want to have to have; etc) at the hands of some giant banks and mortgage companies and the one thing that could possibly save them and/or give them solace is being destroyed by the very people that claim to care about protecting the people. Save us and this country before you who are part of this sabotage are known as the Congresspeople that brought down the United States of America completely. Represent us all...all 100% of the American people...rather than just those who contributed to your campaign or wrote your bills!

I listened to the public reports by Elizabeth Warren and others during the formation of the CFPB. It was so sane and responsible and focused on families and regular people. To the Senate: please do not continue to politicize and undermine this effort. Did you not see what happened to lead to the 2007-8 and post financial debacle?

We need someone to run the CFPB, and Director Cordray is on the job and ready to go. He deserves an up or down vote! The Senate simply needs to do its job, how hard can it be to get this done?

We are tired of the games and partisanship that is going on and the lack of governing in this country that has nothing to do with what is right for the American people. This is not about on party being in power no matter what. Start being honest with the people that elected you and do what is right for the country and quite being beholding to the big money that does not represent the best interest of the people that elected you. Shame on your greed and thirst for just being in power,, you set for the rest of your life as it is as you gamble with the rest of our livelihoods. The so called arguments and euphinisms you use don't cut it.

I am a citizen/voter who elected you to look out for the best interest of myself and individual consumers (AKA voters you were elected to represent). This is most important when the interests of individual consumer/voters conflict with the interests of corporations and industries. Whether or not you support Rich Cordray for this position is a clear sign to me who exactly you are representing. Beware, I am watching and so are millions of other citizen/consumer/voters!

To gut the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau or impede its work in any way would be over-the-top destroying of the American Dream by giving it away to greedy, ruthless and boundary-less corporate interests. The middle class has already been deceived, abused, and sold out wholesale to the 1% and the Wall Street oligarchy. Will there be no limits on these people who have wreaked havoc on our country and our people? Will there be no protections against them totally destroying our middle class, which is the backbone of our democracy? When will their raping and pillaging stop? When and how will the middle class be preserved and protected? The U.S. middle class is currently an endangered species--when will you do something to respect them and ensure their survival, instead of selling out their interests to monopoly capitalists and Wall Street speculators?

Were it not for the CFPB, most American citizens (read "consumers") would still be subject to egregious loan practices from credit card companies, banks, and mortgage lenders. In an era of "too big to fail bank" bailouts, how much further do recalcitrant Senators want to stack the deck against Americans? Get patriotic, you flag-pin flaunting Senators. Start standing up for the American public.

I'm 70yo senior and receiving my monthly SSI checks thru bank. I myself is a victim of my bank's unfair and conscienceless practice. My bank has charged me over $1,339 in 2010 and $1,280 in 2011 and up to now has not received a refund nor a reply after submitting a complaint. CFPB has to come up with better rules to protect us seniors.

This is pure politically-based obstructionism. It has got to stop!

Ralph Basner
Palmer, AK 99645
Apr 1, 2013

I can imagine no other reason for the Senate to so flatly oppose the existence of a Consumer Financial Protection Bereau - as they so evidently do - than the indefensible, undisguisable dictates of greed, and a bald effort to protect the interests of corporate overlords, who have come to enjoy an new Belle Epoch; unprecedented time free from oversight and government regulation. Now, when it's very clear that all the world is a 'soak-the-poor' scheme, and financial protection for those outside the ownership class has become a pressing and real need, those in the Senate - perhaps long since bought and paid for - see the very real need to keep such an agency from spoiling all the fun.. I can't think of an apt historical anecdote. "Political Apathy linked to obesity?" "Startled Senate Ousted in wildly effective unprecedented 'Get Out The Vote campaign" Mitt Romney has proved that people can see past the most egregious efforts to sell them ill-suited, bad, or dishonest representation. Where will it go from here? What is the internet-based version of Bastille Day? If the phrase "Class War" has been bandied about in the last few years, it's been at the behest of corporate media concerns: The One Percent started using the phrase 'class war' and they are cowards, so they didn't start to use the phrase (which amply and substantially describes their campaign of wage restriction, misinformation, and financial graft against the populace class) until the class war was already all but won. Stop showing your colors so unabashedly: remember the dumb-show you must make of upholding the interests of actual consituents: don't create foolish political cause for defending the other percents; Permit the work of RIch Cordray.

Todd O Picton

I am interested in the Bureau doing its job, so I hope you will support this petition. Don't you think it's odd not to want to act for the benefit of your constituents and, ultimately, for a stronger, more congenial environment in which to live? I think the US should progress, not regress, so that life here will be more satisfying and rewarding. As regards reforming Wall Street, for years TIAA-CREF has been trying to make improvements. My experience? I got hit by Wall Street, lost about 60% of my savings (which was needless), and left to go someplace better and more reliable. In the decade or so after the War one could depend on investments; I'm sorry it's taken this long to accept the truth and go elsewhere.

Senator Mark Kirk - your lockstep vote with the Tea Party against Rich Cordray is a vote against the people of Illinois. Enough! Do the job you were elected to do and protect consumers from deceptive banking practices.

Consumer safeguards are needed now more than ever, when we have more students borrowing for tuition, homeowners who have been scorched by lenders and banking regulators that have failed to police financial markets or otherwise constrain the greedy profiteers from taking advantage of consumer's who have less experience in credit and lending practices.

Voters want the CFPB and they want a strong director to oversee it - somebody like Rich Cordray. Of course, Republican congressional members do not and how surprising is that? The minority undermining the majority should be the mantra of the GOP or how about the Party of No. We are the ones that are suffering and we want protection from the predators. Republicans can start supporting the voter or suffer again in the next election.

Senators Alexander and Corker, please use your influence to stop all of the obstructionism that's going on in Congress, period! (Both Houses-the Senate and Representatives.) It seems that many of the elected officials are not the Christians and do-gooders that they proclaim. Petitions are being circulated exposing all of the "entitlements" that the members of Congress are continuing to get (the job perks) and the American people are being terribly penalized financially. Thanks-you.

The minority is certainly not acting on my behalf or on that of the country as a whole. They are blocking meaningful regulation of the miscreants who destroyed our economy once. You must not allow them to do that again.

I have been a vistim not only to outrageoues crdeit card incresases due to deceptive practies that led to my bankruptcy but I also fell victim to our mortgage lender who through deceptice practices slipped through the foreclosure on my home. I've lost everything and yet am still saddled with outrageous debt that I could never repay in a lifetime. I'm fed up with how little our govt. cares for its people. Do not allow CFPB to be eradicated by these untrustworthy "representatives" who no more care for the American people but care only to represent those who will ensure they get reelected. The CFPB is the only agency we have that is the collective voice of the suffering Americans whose lives have been hijacked. Allow Rich Corday to continue his work for the people. Our Senators have forgotten that is their job.

It is pointless to block this nomination because the Bureau is not going to do the real work it should anyway. It will continue to protect Wall Street and it's fabrication and manipulation of financial products and abusing these markets to their benefit. It is all a show to deny the nomination. Do not worry because Cordray isn't going to be bold and do the right thing when he's back at the helm, so there's no point in denying the nomination. Confirm Cordray for more empty promises and inaction, which is what most of the elite behind both parties want anyway.

The government has a responsibility to protect the weak from the mighty. The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau has the mandate to ensure the safety of the individual consumer from the abuse of corporations whose sole intent is to maximize profit, not protect its customers. As such, the CFPB needs leadership immediately. Let's allow a qualified man do his job!

The banks have had their way with government give-a-ways, sly wording in their contracts with people who have home or business loans & continually buy their way out of being held accountable for their greedy and unscrupulous dealings! It is TIME for all people to rise up and stand up for our rights against the harmful and illegal ways the big banks do business. They have used illegal tactics to get away with unlawful loans and other banking practices without any consequences. Meanwhile, the top people in every banking business keep taking enormous salaries while paying little to the working class in their branches. I call it legalized stealing and our government has let them get away with it! It is past the time of reckoning for the bank's business practices. The bank's CEOs, COOs, etc. pay themselves higher salaries than any other country in the world!! Why? Because they can & nobody seems to care what is going on behind the scene in the banking industry's practices. PLEASE, please take a stand & at least sign this petition as a beginning to the cheating & stealing of millions of American families who've been robbed by banks, credit card companies + having their homes illegally foreclosed with deceptive practices.

why are the rich and powerful monopolistic corporations of America so scared of the Consumers Financial Protection Bureau, the federal and state food inspectors, regulatory agencies, borrower protection and citizen's legal rights? That should be the test of whether they should be reasons for breaking large corporations down to manageable size

It is one thing to set up an agency for consumer protection. As the GOP knows, it is quite another to fund it an to appoint a head for that agency - especially when preventing an up/down vote on these things. It it time to honor the wishes of the American People, as they proved in the last election, by fully funding the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and by allowing the Senate to confirm Rich Cordray as Director.

Quit being stupid and refusing to let the Government system work, like it should, instead of making the red tape beauracacy a part of your normal daily business there. Do your job and allow an accredited individual to be appointed, so that our governmental system doesn't appear to not be working, all because of you! Instead of creating more red tape yourself, you should be doing whatever is necessary to minimize the appearance of red tape on your end. In the end, all you're doing is hurting us, the American public and, most of all, your very own constituents.

Congress...you are the worst bunch of legislatures we have every had...do your job and stop the politicing!

Darlene Schaefer

Apr 1, 2013

If any of us thought their trouncing at the polls last November would cause Republicans to start thinking about working toward the common good, we were wildly mistaken. House and Senate Republicans have doubled down on their astounding disregard for humanity in general, with modest exceptions for those who are: a) fantastically wealthy; b) gun advocates. Not only have Republicans elevated corporations to the level of personhood, they have declared corporate whims as intrinsically weightier than mere human needs for survival. This is their signature, this is their creed, and their stonewalling of Richard Cordray's nomination is one more pathetic, telling, example. Vote them ALL out in 2014!

Time to quit playing politics and get the job done instead of criticizing what a hobbled administration can accomplish after Congressional obstructionism. We're not paying the Congress to act like high schoolers -- unless you want to begin earning what you deserved. Of course, you might consider raising the minimum wage if that's what you're getting!

The confirmation of Rich Cordray is important to protect the Consumer from another financial debacle caused by the Bankers' corrupt practices that caused the recession experienced by this country.. Rich Cordray is the right person to head the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau which I am sure is being lobbied against by the Financial Institutions.

Although Senator Rob Portman (R), one of my Senators, did not join the Senators opposing Richard Cordray's appointment as Director of the CFPB, he sent a message to Director Cordray urging him to "stake out a reasonable position" on the changes sought by Republicans. I consider thin worse that the Republican Senator whom we know are just trying to weaken the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, Portman is trying a more insidious method of undermining the Bureau. He calls for a "bipartisan board" to lead this agency. That way Republicans can still hamstring the agency.

Stop the republican fraud enablers. They are destroying our middle class! How can even these republican elitists reconcile more Wall Street larceny after sept '08 brought the world economy down?? Citizens require an agency in "our corner". Obama has thrown the middle class under the bus many times. And yet for these mercenary senators from "the party of STUPID" even Obama, after blocking Warren's lead position at CFPB and hiring his two Wall Street crony secretarys of Treasury hasn't provided them enough proof that Obama himself is in the pocket of Wall Street . They want to enable even more Wall Street casino behavior, to threaten the middle class with more boom and bust by blocking CFPB.

This is money talking. It feeds on the poor and the fragile, dessicates the middle class it suffered to grow only on threat of revolution, and where deeply compromised politicians make even modest gestures toward restoring decorum and discretion to the organized crimegoing on in the financial system, the minions of money rattle a few cages and the more craven wing of the nondemocratic house of congress sings the deadening old tune that soothes its keepers: "No! No! No!" We must remind these senators to thank Mr. Reid for ensuring the Senate wil continue to fail to function for another couple of years at least.

Why do these senators not have enough intelligence to work in a positive way to support the Bureau? They are sounding like a bunch of adolescents who have no clue and still act like they know everything. A nation without controls will surely never thrive, Good directors deserve support, not obstruction.

I hope the American people see what is happening here and that the next election day, get these do-nothing blockers of everything we are trying to do right, vote them out of office. They are heading America into another financial collapse, this one will take the country down so far, we will not be able to see up. Do the right thing for once in your life and stop lining your congressional pockets with money that does not belong to you as a lawgiver by the rich, who are protecting themselves. For once in your lives - do the right thing and let this agency do what it is supposed to do - Protect the American people's finances.

The consumers of these United States, we who carry the American economy on our shoulders, need the protection of laws and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau to ensure that the large banks and powerful corporations are not allowed to continue raping the middle class. I vote YES to Rich Corday and NO to the lack of regulations that got us into the financial mess that has average middle class Americans drowning.

This is a tie of almost unparalleled consumer fraud, and the average citizen cannot pay for a lawyer against a corporation, so have no protection. In the long-run, businesses get better when there is a level playing field of good behaviour by businesses toward citizens. We need the CFBB and we need Richard Cordray. Now.

Why do Republicans always come down on the side of big business? If the GOP were given their way, there would be no OSHA, no child labor laws, product safety would be ignored, antipollution laws removed, workman's compensation eliminated, etc. So it is not surprising what the GOP's reaction will be when they hear of an agency whose job it is to protect the public. They are going to try to destroy it, of course. But Mr. or Ms. GOPer, even if you care nothing for the public and only for maximizing the profits of big business, please respect the process of the Senate and do not block by nefarious means. Have some respect for our institutions even if you have none for the public at large. Make your case, and then let the process proceed. Of course I realize that this is like asking the Boston Strangler to limit himself to shoulder massages, but I have to try.

Stop helping the banksters become even more OBSCENELY richer than they already are. Just being wealthy in itself is not so bad, but getting rich by screwing your fellow Americans by abusive and deceptive banking and lending, which left many, many bankrupt and homeless is WRONG and CRIMINAL. Put the banksters in jail for their crimes. Help ordinary Americans. Mr. Cordray wants to work AGAINST the rampant corruption. America NEEDS him. End the filibuster, which is allowing Republicans and Teabaggers to OBSTRUCT, OBSTRUCT, AND THEN OBSTRUCT SOME MORE. They care nothing for the betterment of Americans, they just only want people in Congress will who promote policies that make a handful of people even more obscenely richer, while MOST ordinary Americans just get screwed. America is a really sick nation these days, in so many ways. Don't make it worse. CONFIRM RICH CORDRAY. That would be one tiny step towards healing America.

The CFPB was created to address the huge problem of abusive and deceptive banking and lending, which caused an epidemic of foreclosures, saddled millions of Americans with unmanageable debt, and triggered an ongoing economic calamity. Under Rich Cordray's leadership, the CFPB has ably begun to fulfill its mission by returning nearly half a billion dollars to consumers cheated by credit card companies; moving to end the era of mortgages designed to rake in up-front fees before they self-destruct; standing up for students and families trapped in high-cost education loans; and protecting military families against illegal foreclosures and deceptive education-loan practices. It is doing all this and more, while operating with refreshing candor and transparency and outreach to the public, and with steady oversight from Capitol Hill. Director Cordray has been re-nominated to serve a full term. His leadership has won praise from Republicans and Democrats, and from bankers and consumer advocates. And yet, for two years, a group of Senators has held his appointment hostage.. To those Senators we say: It is time to change your position. We need the CFPB to be effective. We urge you to reject the use of the confirmation process - and the filibuster - to undo legislation passed by wide majorities in the House and Senate, signed by the President, and supported by large majorities of the public. The choice before the Senate is simple: allow an up-or-down vote on this nomination, or open the door to more of the slippery financial practices that the CFPB is working hard to prevent. That would be terrible not only for consumers but for responsible lenders and the broader economy.

Definition of GOP: Shills for corporate POWER vs. citizen power. Proverbs 14:31 - He who oppresses the poor taunts his Maker, but he who is gracious to the needy honors Him. The rich, and especially financial corporations are NOT on oppressed minority. "Minority" by sociological definition are those who experience barriers to good/services that are easy for others to access. It's the vast majority of Americans now that have trouble affording goods/services easily enjoyed by the corporations and powerful individuals!

I want this agency to do its job. I do not benefit in any way from the way the banking system is designed to make money for the rich at any cost to the regular American. This system is bad for everyone including the rich! We need the CFPB and we need to educate those misinformed senators and to overrule those unethical senators who are blocking it from doing its job.

It should be fairly obvious that our financial institutions can't be trusted to act on our behalf. We, as individuals, don't have the means to defend ourselves against their reckless, irresponsible practices. If they weren't so powerful, we wouldn't need government to step in and protect us. Big government IS, after all, our only defense against BIG businesses that treat us unfairly.

The CFPB was created to address the huge problem of abusive and deceptive banking and lending, which caused an epidemic of foreclosures, saddled millions of Americans with unmanageable debt, and triggered an ongoing economic calamity. Under Rich Cordray's leadership, the CFPB has ably begun to fulfill its mission by returning nearly half a billion dollars to consumers cheated by credit card companies; moving to end the era of mortgages designed to rake in up-front fees before they self-destruct; standing up for students and families trapped in high-cost education loans; and protecting military families against illegal foreclosures and deceptive education-loan practices. It is doing all this and more, while operating with refreshing candor and transparency and outreach to the public, and with steady oversight from Capitol Hill. Director Cordray has been re-nominated to serve a full term. His leadership has won praise from Republicans and Democrats, and from bankers and consumer advocates. And yet, for two years, a group of Senators has held his appointment hostage.. To those Senators we say: It is time to change your position. We need the CFPB to be effective. We urge you to reject the use of the confirmation process - and the filibuster - to undo legislation passed by wide majorities in the House and Senate, signed by the President, and supported by large majorities of the public. The choice before the Senate is simple: allow an up-or-down vote on this nomination, or open the door to more of the slippery financial practices that the CFPB is working hard to prevent. That would be terrible not only for consumers but for responsible lenders and the broader economy.

How could anyone not vote for someone to head this bureau after everything that happened to our economy. You prove yourself over and over to not be serious people committed to the well being of the people. This is the reason we came out in numbers and reelected a president who at other times in history would not have been given another chance. Your failure to see this will continue to see you lose elections.

the faults that Mr. Cordray are none, this is just a republican game and that is why the general public thinks the system don't work.This a very childish game on the part of those that where elected to lead this country, and cant focus on the priorities at hand that will make this country even stronger, they are more concerned with the control of the votes they cant control, to get the control of the working class which will give them the money!!!!!!!!!!!!!

History will look with a magnifying glass at exactly who in our Congress stands with its citizen voters---and which politicians stood with their paymasters and against consumers. And history now is written and consumed at lightening speed. It's time to start looking at just who's side our legislators are on.

Is anybody able to do anything about all the members of Congress who seem to be chronically angry, and into oppositional defiance. These are all hallmarks of mental disorders!!! In the middle ages, "mad" and "mentally ill" meant the same thing!

An honest, hard working, experienced person is needed to head the CFPB. Not one whom the people's representatives can bludgeon into submission. Or in many cases, corrupt him/her into going along with the misguided Republican minority.

American's lost houses to the same financial institutions that caused the financial crisis - through the resale of dirivatives the enriched dozens of very weathy and yet selfish and greedy executives. How much longer with the US Senate allow those with the most of everything take the precious little that honest, loyal, and hard working Americans have? Is the Republican party so despirate for cash they'll take it from those that forclosed on their own constuants? We needed the Consumer Financial Protection bureau in 1900 and we need it even more now. How about some more promises and pledges to the Consitution and not to some lying tax demogog?

Food, drug and water protections are seriously eroding to say nothing of Monsanto and other industries we aren't allowed to sue for dangerous and defective products like guns—we can sue over a toy gun and not a genuine gun. It's all corruption. You need to get things done. Make them back down, make them physically filibuster. Everyone is sick of your stagnation and caving.

Not again! Sore losers acting like pre-pubescent children. Won't change the diapers of a group that hates our black President! They won't do anything to help our country IF it makes the President look good. Maybe it would make them look good at the same time? What a pathetic lot!

If you object to having a CFPB, what is your justification? It's no excuse to say that government is too big. Isn't it obvious that the banking/lending industry is too arrogant and greedy, and in the past few years has been the source of unacceptable misery for the American people.

I think Rich Cordray is standing up against big banks and holding the big banks accountable for all the wrong doing practices they done to their consumers so I ask some of the Senate leaders to stop this kind of delay and quit holding this candidate for a second term hostage by confirming this man Rich Cordray. This man is doing a fine job and let him finish this job that he started.

I blame this all on my Senator from Nevada, who when he had a chance to end the 60votes nonsense, opted instead for a "gentleman's agreement" with people who aren't gentlemen! It's time to get rid of the old guard if it won't do its job!

Stop holding Rich Cordray and the American people hostage. Allow an up or down vote. It is disgraceful that a handful of Republicans can completely stop government in its tracks. I vote and I will remember.

To those Senators who feel they should block the renomination of Rich Cordray and ins o doing hope to alter the CFPb - what do you think the last Presidential Election was about? The PEOPLE who elect the government do not want your version of business as it was. We want banks to become more about the depositors and a lot less about personal profit for the bankers! Stop stonewalling and approve the renomination and deal with the present and stop trying to bring back the past - it was not so great for the majority and we do not want it back!

The wll street crroks and the banksters are not to big to jail. We need a diligent and forceful review of these crooks. Harry Reid sold out again when he agreed to the minimal attempt to limit filibusters. He did not do anything. Government cannot funciton when a minority can subvert the majority.

If the people don't get justice with the Congress, they will find another way to get it, and history shows that is not always a good way. Every woman knows that leaving a lid on a pressure cooker without an escape valve can be a dangerous situation. Warren is right and Republicans are gambling with the lives and well being of others.

Never before have so few negatively affected the lives of so many. It brings to my mind the old addage that goes something like this: "You can fool some of the people all the time and you can fool all the people some of the time, but you can fool all the people all the time!" President Obama will survive in spite of the confusion he must face daily!!!

These efforts are purely obstructionist by Republican Senators. If you can't win the elections fairly you either try to "steal" the elections or obstruct the will of the people who chose another way by electing the Democrats. We see you and know what you're doing we're not stupid. Confirm Rich Corday now.

Mr Cordray is concerned with us, the consumers of this country. Obviously the Republicans in the Senate show little interest in the welfare of this nation. Please tell Senator Reid to take up filibuster reform so that appointees of the administration can get to work for the benefit of the country as a whole, not just the few. Robert Flynn Essex Jct, VT

If Senators block the confirmation of Cordray to the CFPB it would be yet another confirmation that the Senate is owned and operated by the "too big to fail" Banks and the wealthiest among us. Please don't let this happen. The CFPB is working to protect average citizens. What a novel idea, a Government agency devoted to the protection of the 99% of citizens.

The laws need to apply equally to everyone. It's time for the banks and lending services to face the same punishments I would have to face if I stole or defrauded them out of even the tiniest fraction of what they ripped off of millions of Americans. Confirm Rich Cordray now! We need his leadership and oversight.

I believe like Elizabeth Warrensays: "Never before in American history has a minority in the Senate blocked a nominee to try to get changes in a law they don't like and don't have the votes to change." She's talking about the 43 Senators who have threatened to block Rich Cordray's re-nomination as director.

Do we elect our representatives to work for the peoples' interest or for personal interest? If the answer is no then, confirm Rich Cordray. The government if of the people by the people and for the people. It appears that the senetors against Mr. Cordray are accomplices to the crime being committed by big businesses against the people. "We the people" want Mr. Cordray confirm.

Richard Cordray has performed excellently as director of this excellent new bureau. He has done so due to our President's appointment due to lack of will and confounded obeisance to a "Senate Rule" that allows the minority to wag the tail of the majority. It is time for Senate Democrats to develop a spine. You all (most) have become soft in your seats. Where is your statesmanship? Where is your leadership? Where even is your willingness to try to bring some Republicans along with you? Are you answerable to this country or only to the state you serve?. Those of us who give you money to run are in many states, not just the one from which you come! Stand up! Be Counted. Confirm Richard Cordray!

How can any member of Congress, all of whom were elected by votes from individual citizens, stand for large banks and financial institutions against the best interests of those very citizens who put them in their current position of power. All members of Congress take an oath to represent their constituents and uphold the Constitution of the United States. Acting on behalf of the banks by dismantling the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau removes a vital safeguard to protect citizens from the misdeeds of greedy corporations.

It's time for the obstructionist members of Congress to stand up for the Americans that voted them into office, instead of backing the entities that fund them personally and expect a free-ticket to do what they like. Dear Repub;ican Senator:I have felt personally the disregard for me as a customer by both Chase Bank and AMEX credit cards. I think that the last election clearly told you that if you do not reverse your backing of powerful interests who are screwing the average customer frequently, you will suffer severely,politically at the polls.If you refuse to do the right things for average people, they eventually find out not to vote for you as they did in the Senate elections, 2012.Elizabeth Warren's revelation should shame you as Americans.

I hope and pray that in the future we have senators who are there because they care about helping our country, not trying to weaken it and ruin it for corporate interests. I am really sick of this occuring hopefully in the future years all of you will be sitting on the bench, outside of congress and the senate.

Blocking Cordray is akin to stripping the guts from the EPA. When we haven't even fully recovered from the collapse that followed Wall Street's response to deregulation the last time around. Now you wish to unplug the firewall protecting us from it because it has been too effective. Americans who are unable to learn from history are labeled "stupid" or "corrupt"...which are you?

I find that the CFPB does in fact do what it has aimed to do: limit, and stop deceptive ways money is lended to the US people. The fact that it is being opposed by those with a lot of money is one reason I support it so. Represent me well by stopping the opposition towards the CFPB and let the bureau do the job it aims to do.

This office was created to help consumers. I can't think of why a US Senator would not want this. Must be all the corporate people who give you big bucks. Beware the people who vote for you are watching and will know when you stand against them and for the big corporations.

Oversight and transparency are demanded at every sporting event, so that every game is fair and played on a level court/field. The same must be done within out highly competitive Capitalistic society that we all love. Fairness & transparency for all, as assured by a strong group of "referees" at the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. What we demand in our sports, we should demand in our economy, as there is no difference. Kevin Kilner

Subject: Tell Your Senators to Let the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau Do Its Job and Confirm Rich Cordray Hi, Elizabeth Warren: "Never before in American history has a minority in the Senate blocked a nominee to try to get changes in a law they don't like and don't have the votes to change." She's talking about the 43 Senators who have threatened to block Rich Cordray's re-nomination as director. They don't question his qualifications; their grievance is with the CFPB itself. "Blocking Rich Cordray is about weakening the agency," says Warren. It's "about keeping the game rigged" so "consumers remain in the dark -- and a few bad actors can rake in big profits." That's why I signed a petition to The United States Senate. Will you sign this petition? Click here: http://signon.org/sign/tell-your-senators-to-1?source=s.em.cp&r_by=190274 Thanks!

We have been impacted as a nation by 'uncontrolled, irresponsible, greed' in the decisions made by unregulated boundaries. It's thhis type of attitude that CREATES THE NEED FOR STATED BOUNDARIES. Those senators who insist on walking the lock-step program need to be FIRED. Do your jobs for the individual citizens NOW. Bernadette

I'm still very angry that these billionaire criminals have suffered no penalties for what they did and are doing to the economy of this country. We are just pawns in their big banking game and they could care less. Federal Government needs money??..... Penalize these big game players, they have PLENTY that they don't NEED.

The purpose of business is to serve the needs of the public with high quality products and services at an affordable value. IT IS NOT to cheat, deceive, and steal at every opportunity. IT IS THE GOVERNMENT fault this has happened. The government has to stop being bribed by lobbyist and acting like the servants of corporations.

Banks and Wall Street, with their extreme nefarious actions and assistance from Congress, caused America to agonize for too long. The time is at hand for a procedure to command they become responsible for their actions and not just a wrist slap. The average American must pay in dollars and cents for everything these elitist groups do, why are these ungrateful malevolent people allowed to continue their cold-blooded controlling conduct, when people are living on the streets, thrown from their homes and made to look like criminals. These chauvinistic malefactor Pharisees are allowed to scam, cheating their way to million and billions, while America Families suffers. The CFPB has a job and must continue for the sake of Good Honest Americans.

Unless you plan to ask Elizabeth Warren to serve her term as Senator andmoonlight as the Director of the CFPB , YOU NEED TO CONFIRM RICH CORDRAY. For too long there has been NO Consume Financial Protection. Not at the self -serving institutions themselves...try making a call to Wells Fargo...I dare you. They have no place you can get an answer. They don't even respond to their own local branch managers. I need the protection of the CFPB. Confirm Cordrays' appointment. Betsy Cunningham, Baltimore MD

In the absence of the Glass Steagall (sp?) Act or something similar, it is of vital importance to have this agency run effectively and that means having someone at the top. I find the overuse of filibusters and other parliamentary techniques obstructionist -- no matter what party is doing it! Please stop this nonsense, confirm Cordray and get on with the business of representing voters not your big contributors!

So far the consumer protection agency has been doing great things for consumers. I particularly like what they have done to improve transparency with credit cards. I see failure to support it, and the nominee for its director, as a failure to support the American public. If our elected officials aren't in office to protect the public, what are they there for?

Consumers need more protection than ever. Banks that act like pirates, corporations that sell inferior products with no accountability and politicians who care more for their pocketbooks than for caring for their charges, the people who elected them. Senators, it is time to do your real jobs. Mid-term elections are not far off, and we are watching you.

There is an element in the House and Senate that want the status quo. They don't want transparency. It wasn't enough that the banks, wall street, lobbyists, weapons manufacturers and the illegal war in Iraq bankrupted the country, they still want to destroy America with their mantra of profit at any cost. We know who these politicians are and they are going to be voted out of office by we the American people.

We are all tired with the adversarial methods which defeat the democratic ideal. When the ideas and laws which one side does not like prevail, that 'side's' job is to work to educate and persuade the public to their point of view - fairly, and with honor. It is time to confirm Mr. Cordray.

In order to understand banking predation it is necessary to study evolutionary psychology and anthropology. Cro Magnons survived an ice age because they had communication skills that made possible cooperative hunting. We are alive today because our ancestors were efficient hunters. Contemporary humans are no less hunters than were our ancestors. The only thing that has changed is that objects of the hunt are more various: cars, electronics, pink bunnies, that woman in the smashing outfit, that handsome man in that expensive suit. Higher order psychical development requires significant modification of the 'hunter module' in the mind. We are no longer Cro Magnons facing an ice age: we are modern humankind facing global warming, technological revolution, the breakdown of outmoded economic systems. The Third World is starving. The First World is polluting and pillaging. Wake up. Recalibrate the economic system on the basis of truths concerning our evolutionary past--predation, technological innovation, cooperation, communication--and on the basis of truths concerning the current ongoing global economic crisis. What happened in Cyprus can happen anywhere a bailout is necessary.

You should post the names of those senators that would allow a repeat of what drove this economy into recession. The senator which have decided to aid banks in their plots to destroy the middle class should be removed immediately and placed on a list which permanently restricts their evolvement in the law making process.

America is traumatized by the 2008 Wall St fiasco ,whih not only stomped our economy, but betrayed American's longstanding faith in banks. IF WE ARE GOING TO HAVVE BANK ENTITIES THAT ARE ALLOWED TO BECOME TOO BIG TO FAIL, THEN IT IS INSANE TO EXPECT 'MARKET FORCES' TO MAKE THEM 'SELF REGULATED." An Ayn Rand fantasy land about this is ruiinous. Government is NOT 'the problem. The problem is it has been mis -defined as such, not for the citizenry's wellbeing, or even for the good of the economy as a whole, but for the sake of the highest 'end' big iinvestor 'class" and their corporate stock price driven expansions. REGULATe, and hire someone who has the ethical role of oversight at heart...We need a BALANCED capitalism. NOthing this huge should be as deregulated as finance has become.

Come on Senator Cornyn--I worked for you when you were TX A. G. You were truly bipartisan then, getting rid of the really bad Morales upper management Child Support staff, then letting experienced State employees (most of them accustomed to voting Democratic) run (and save!!) the TX child support program. Let Mr. Cordray and the CFPB do its work and knock off all the destructive filibustering. I still have much respect for you, please do the right thing for us average Texans this time.

If big business of any type is allowed to write the laws they want and gut those they dont want our end result will reflect that fact. The representations of this already exist in American Society.... Fracking with no oversight.... UPS getting sued because they were delivering drugs bought on online pharmacies.... Drugs that cost many times less than what the drug companies want per dose yet come in the same packaging .... How about Medicare D which prevents the US government from buying drugs in bulk..... The list is endless.... Do Your Job.

CFPB, created to address abuse and deception in banking and lending practices, must not be now defeated by abusive and deceptive Senate practices. Confirm Rich Cordray and begin to turn the corner toward the renewal of an honorable Senate, a Senate you can once again be proud of, because the Senators began, once again, to behave as reponsible legislators from their respective states.

As an Ohioan, I am proud that a fellow Ohioan, Richard Cordray, is serving the nation in leading the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. I urge my Ohio Senators and all member of the Senate to support his work and confirm him for this important leadership position. He is an acclaimed public servant and the work of the CFPB is essential as we move our institutions toward a more responsive and just pattern of financial practices. VOTE FOR RICHARD CORDRAY'S NOMINATION NOW!!

Senator Brown -- I know you are with us. Thank you! Senator Portman - The Republican party is fissioning. Eventually, you are going to have to decide which side to go with -- the Know-Nothings or the Compassionate Conservatives. I am certain that one can be a conservative and remain a decent human being. I hope you go that way.

You all were sent there to work for us. All I see is a bunch of lazy fat cats sitting on their butts waiting for their paymasters to tell them what to do. Before any cuts come to the middle class we need you to do you're fair share and take cuts. Let's start paying you for the hours and days you really work for the people and not your next election. You're the most over paid under worked people in Washington and we sure don't get our monets worth out of you. We need the CFPB and Richard Cordray to lead it , do your stinking jobs and confirm his place on this board.

The truth is, the way our congress is now..there is NO democracy. There is no by the people or for the people. There IS a modified aristocracy...by the corporations FOR the corporations. The congressmen have completely BASTARDIZED the system. As long as the corporations and the elite running them are happy who cares if the public has good food (Monsanto protection act) or clean air and water (fracking controversy). Move on with these agendas and eventually there will be a revolution. This all needs to STOP.

Numerous Departments and Governmental agencies were without their heads or top administrators during President Obama's first term because of the filibustering that went on by the Republicans -- over 300 times. Even the apointee slated to head the TSA bailed out because he got tired of waiting. The filibustering and obstructioning by the Republicans and Tea Partiers has got to stop!

The CFPB has already done good work for the public. We need it to be fully activated and fully led by Richard Cordray to protect the interests of the average person against big financial institutions who are not treating us fairly and have far more leverage, money and loyal representatives than we do! Mr. Cordary and he is a standup person for the JOB-. Protect the American peoples' financial rights. I cannot tell you how important this is, and if you dismiss its importance then I cannot help you, nor will you be able to help yourself... Please care about this more than any nonessential thing you will do this week. Thank you Lee

We need protection. How could you allow the banks to take our money and use it as margin or on speculative investments. where the top managers got the profit but the taxpayer paid the price.. wish I could lend money I do not even have and if I did not get my money back the government would bail me out.. Just a disgrace.. let the CFPB do its job PLEASE not BIG money. You were elected to do the right thing .. please do it..

A system of checks and balances (and transparency) always works best. Weakening the CFPB authority would take away checks on the financial sector and return to a situation where risky and unchecked behavior can lead to economic catastrophe for society.

Senators, you seem to forget that you are the minority and you are not representing your constituency, but a much smaller group of power hungry. You need to reassess your actions and remember who you are, US Senators, not political terrorists. Confirm Cordray, while he may or may not be your first choice, let the system get to work to attempt to correct problems. You blocking only creates more problems and an even higher level of distrust and hatred for YOU, not Cordray, the politicians that actually are representing the people and government. You are making everyone else look bad, but your own actions are putting you in the worst light. TLGLyons

Why would consumer protection be an issue? The only reason is because the giant corporations, and the wealthy who finance elections, want to be able to ride roughshaw over the people in order to make even more money. Consumers need someone who watches out for them. They have been taken advantage of enough already!! They need more protection, not LESS!!!

From GMO protection to NDAA, the only things congress seems good at passing are things that hurt the average citizen. CFPB needs to be supported, not hindered, but if Congress can't pass what is good for the people, then more Senators need to stop what is bad as vigorously as does the GOP at inserting the harm.

I and other ordinary U. S. citizens are becoming heartily sick of our so-called representatives in Washington doing everything in their power to enable the corporatocracy while trying to destroy, and largely succeeding, the middle class. What a shame that the once great U.S. A. is rapidly beginning to look like a third world nation--a widening chasm between the have's and the have not'. What a shame!

To delay the confirmation of Rich Cordray to head up the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau is basically immoral.Your attempt to weaken this agency before it has a leader again supports your big donors not us. For example I have just received a notice from my insurance company Physicians Mutual that my long term insurance premium will again increase to make it 29% more in the last TWO years. Alternately my SS check increased by 2%, hows that for a deficit? I think we will turn over our assets to our kids so that if this requirement occurs we will be able to go onto Title 19 and have the State pay for it. Who supports us?

Ahh, yes...just like you did with the ATF, the FDA and any other agency that is actually trying to work to make our food and lives safer! But, then, JPMorgan doesn't want this, so it will pass. Corporations run America, not the people! We have gone from a Democracy to a Plutocracy, with only the rich being able to buy our politicians! The John Doe Society is sick of the Helots that run this country with their hands in the pockets of the poor, instead of the rich! Oh, and those jobs that you say that Americans won't do...that's because they are so far in debt to survive that they could not take those jobs because they will not pay enough to pay down their debt. NOT because they do not want to work! We WANT to work, but cannot afford to work for NOTHING!

America is founded on many sound and lasting principles, chief among them is the declaration of fairness and honesty we all must adopt in order to call ourselves what so many fail to understand our nature and our liberties to be: Responsible Americans willing to stand against all the many wrongs and adaptations stripped from the common good and twisted to serve those whose interests are to sheltered their own self and destructive interests. The CFPB was created to address the huge problem of abusive and deceptive banking and lending, which caused an epidemic of foreclosures, saddled millions of Americans with unmanageable debt, and triggered an ongoing economic calamity.

Who are you going to support? Are you going to support the rich, the banks, and Wall Street, or are you going to support the people, the working Americans, and the middle class? I have worked so hard all my life to support this country. I am a Vietnam veteran, and I taught for 32 years in inner city schools. I and so many like me deserve the protection of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. I ask again, where is your loyalty?

The CFPB is the best thing for the average person since consumer protectionism was invented. Not supporting the CFPB tells us you you do not support your constituency,support your donors, banks, the wealthy and big business. Therefore, you should not be in office representing your public.

I believe that we consumers need all the protection we can get! Banks "too big to fail" get bailouts, but ordinary consumers often face foreclosures, bankruptcy, and financial devastation. At the same time, the same CEOs whose financial institutions were "bailed out" by the American taxpayers receive "golden "parachutes" and manage to avoid prosecution for their wrongdoing. We, the People, need protection, not those who caused the Great Recession! .

Make no mistake: This is an effort to gut the CFPB, not fix it. A minority of senators who voted against its creation in the first place are using the confirmation process to try to bully the CFPB out of effective existence. The changes that they demand would be terrible for consumers, but wonderful for Wall Street and financial scammers. The choice before the Senate is simple: Allow an up-or-down vote on this nomination, or open the door to more of the slippery financial practices that the CFPB is working hard to prevent.

Stop the Tea Party Traitors and their Conservative Collaborators from their unstated but obvious goal of destroying democracy and the United States of America. No other explanation explains their behavior. Whether as dupes, stooges or villians, they are clearly engaged in the destruction of their own country and like the traitors they are, should be hanged to a man (including the women). Stop them or hang them, we really don't care which anymore.

Americans need and deserve to keep the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau intact & to have Rich Cordray confirmed as director.

Dear Republican Senators: You are behaving consistantly like greed-driven myopic pigs who have zero care for America or her people. STOP YOUR CONSTANT BLOCKING OF EVERY SINGLE THING THAT BENEFITS ANYONE OTHER THAN YOU AND YOUR RICH FRIENDS. Shame on you. How are you idiots going to explain your hatred for the poor and the working people to Jesus---whom most, if not all, of you claim to love and belong to?

Big banks are the closest thing to criminal thugs. They steal citizens' paltry money with made-up fees and negligible interest to make billions off the backs of working people. Then when these workers are old and just trying to make it, they thrust a reverse mortgage on them under the guise of "helping" them to live their life adequately. Then, as the final blow, they basically steal their houses. Their actions are abusive and criminal, and they should be penalized for them. Republicans are in collusion with these criminals and should also be investigated thoroughly.

The obstruction tactics of the Republican Senators the past four years has brought the integrity of our checks and balance system into question as the only reason to block any vote has been to undermine the President. There is no integrity in such procedural tactics and it is undermining the ability of government to function effectively especially our courts. Judges and other Presidental appointments deserve a vote. Its time Republicans including my Senataors Flake and McCain gave Democracy a change. The President won, let him succeed. Stop disgracing the Senate and the Republican Party with obstruction.

You guys have the best health care in the world: I have none. A recent 45 minute trip to the hospital cost me over $1700. You guys make millions of dollars in kickbacks and everything else, while you are KILLING the middle class. AND THEN YOU HAVE THE NERVE TO NOT WORK? I think that Rich Cordray needs to be confirmed and that you people need to get back to work and stop the filibustering and sequester . It makes me want to puke the way Reps will not work across party lines. All of you deserve a swift kick in the you-know-where

I think the was the American Congress is working, or shall I say - NOT WORKING - today is appalling. they are not working for what is best for the American people, only what is best for their pocketbooks and their cronies - their financiers!!! Stop blocking Rich Cordray's re-nomination as director of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and get on with some real issues like saving America from your destruction!!!

In fact, I'd like to add some additional responsibilities to thie CFPB, specifically the issue of dynamic pricing on airline tickets. Most recently I selected specific flights at specific prices only to be told at "book it" that the price was $200 more per ticket as I was about to put the purchase on my credit card. This would be like going to WalMart to buy a product marked at a specific price at the shelf, only to be told at check out that the price had been increased 15% that day due to consumer demand.

Just another example of dark, power-hungry, pathetic elitist senators trying to keep the middle class as their slaves. Time for WE THE PEOPLE to band together, stomp them down and out, and let them know who is boss. It's time! We are so much stronger than them, and now it's time to put them in their place... kneeling at the feet of US who feed them.

We still have the b ig banks pulling stuff. In California, Wells fargo foreclosed on someone due to a mistake in his prop tax bill - even after they discovered it was a mistake. This is disgraceful and if they pull this stuff, they ought to be put out of business. We need someone to guard against abuse by financial institutions.

Seems to me that some people in the Senate and Congress don't want to help the people of this country at all. By not confirming Rich Cordray they are confirming that "We, the people" mean nothing to them.

This business of holding up or blocking nearly every cabinet and govt bureau appointment just because the appointment was made by President Obama (and you don't like him), has got to stop. It is a tactic unworthy of such an august body as the Senate of the United States of America. Americans can see that this contributes to the dysfunction and paralysis in Washington. Stop this petty behavior and do your jobs.

We need to empower the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau to enforce the controls and oversight on banking credit card and loan practices. Already MANY Americans --- the 99 %-- are moving what little money and credit they still have OUT of corporate banking and into smaller, community based LOCAL credit unions. If abusive practices continue--- and they still do because the consumer protection laws are very weak on enforcement--- America will see a banking crash like the one in Cyprus... I am absolutely fed up with the behavior and actions of Republican representatives in Congress who are intent on hogtying the administrations progressive agenda. Stalling on the confirmation of Rich Cordray to undermine the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau is shoddy and passive aggressive behavior. We will take back Congress if this outrageous stance continues. Government BY THE PEOPLE, FOR THE PEOPLE AND OF THE PEOPLE. Your egocentric, self-serving demeanor is not only shameful, it is biased and continues to foster inequity. If you continue to play this foul game, we will take you down, one election at a time until a major revolt enters Congress. A huge Tsunami is coming your way. Shape up or will we ship you out!

Stand by Rich Cordray's appointment to ensure direction of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau as we, the public intended, when Congress created it. Every time Republicans try to sabotage government for the people, EXPOSE them. Waking up the public to their opposition to the public good is key to getting them out. THEN, we can go forward. Support Jeff's and all moves to end filibusters.

Those senators etc. blocking Cordray's confirmation are betraying their country, and their action needs to be on the front page of every newspaper with their names in bold print. The American people are being shredded by these prostitue senators who sell themselves to lobbyists of the criminal wealthy in our country.

A nomination that needs to be filled should not be held up just so a bill can be passed. Neither side has objections to the nominee for the open position give this nomination an up or down vote. The Republicans have complained about this many times when they have wanted something passed into law so ask them to stop being hypocrites and vote.

this god-dammed predatory capitalism needs to be regulated to death as the ultimate goal of the wealthy, is a return to the era of abuse at the turn of the Century by Robber Barons, whose devouring greed forced the unionism that Predatory Capitalism and the uninformed so staunchly decry.

Why is it a few senators would want to stop protection for the average person. Their rich buddies get all the protection they need from their senate friends thats' why. What is happening to this country? It was a place for the middle class to find a secure and happy life!!! All these 43 senators want to do is protect their rich compadres. I'm sick and tired of the middle class taking it on the chin. Get rid of these nut cases!! Theresa O'Brien

Listen to these JOKES, they are very FUNNY: - http://www.youtube.com/watch?feature=endscreen&v=MQcAwhXbqTE&NR=1 http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AGab5zzr_VU&list=PL116C89FA5CD6E362&NR=1&feature=endscreen http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=T3fyAbm6sLQ&NR=1&feature=endscreen http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MJJBm5t4SwQ&NR=1&feature=endscreen I ask a very simple question: What are the top 3 things you need to accomplish in the next 6-12 months to give your START-UP company or career the best chance of long-term success? Push yourself to be specific. And rank the responses in order of importance. Is creating the best product most important? How about locking down distribution? Are those both more important than monetization? How about hiring the right people? How about raising money? Is business development important to the business this year? Most entrepreneurs I speak to can't name their priorities right away. http://campusmillionaires.organogold.com http://how-to-fund-startup-company.blogspot.com/ How to SELF-FUND your own Start-up company teaches you how to leverage the executive-level income that can be made from coffee millionaire in Organo Gold to fund whatever private company or new business you would like to create. You can also use a portion of your income to trade in the STOCK MARKET and increase your earnings exponentially by TRADING in STOCK OPTIONS Sam Cole, MBA http://facebook.com/samuel.mba http://about.me/samkolemba Tweet me @http://twitter.com/ymbinc http://ogshow.com

How dare you put your personal gains ahead of this country. Get out of the government if you can't represent the people. You are proving again that the 2 party system does not work, and more and more of us will look for another way to representatives of us into the government. Stop blocking an agency that will help the 99% instead of just the 1%!

This Bureau was only formed because there were problems with the way business was treating its consumers. The problems will not go away without this oversight. Citizens count...and they trump business misdeeds. Businesses who do the right thing will not be affected. It's a win-win for the common good.

The only true constant that exists is change itself. -Famous quote. I think everyone in the midwest and south needs to remember that for the next U.S. election. If you don't change your reps, everyone will fight for the essential s they need, regardless of your ignorance about their matters. Pay attention, or the whole system is gonna give and people won't believe in it anymore. That means they'd do anything for bread and eggs. No one, including and especially the rich, will immune or safe. If you don't have as much foresight as an average college student, maybe you aren't qualified to act like you know how to solve any of our problems. If we don't get good paying jobs again in the near future, beware.

Americans are tired of the obstructive behavior of Senators who use filabuster tactics to keep the Government from functioning productively. Americans will not continue to support those who are found to behaving in this manner. Start acting in the interest of the country and not your selfish political strategy.

Cordray has done a great job trying to protect the middle class from the ravages of the greed of the financial industry. We need him to help level the playing field and help ensure that we never have another event like this last financial debacle. If you want the votes of ordinary people, protect the CFPB and confirm Rich Cordray! Thanks.

As corporations/banks gain more and more rights, it is critical we maintain and strengthen consumer protection! Corporations/banks are not persons, consumers are persons. The constitution was written to give inalienable rights to humans, not companies/banks! The government should serve persons, not corporations/companies/banks!

Please quit blocking the nomination of Rich Cordray. The legislative process is so bogged down that US voters are disgusted. We who work in government know that these stalling tactics will only serve to alienate voters, BUT alienating voters seems to be the new 'right' strategy of conservative. This is why even MEXICO has better economic reform and progress and it explains why the U.S. dollar is losing value in the international market. WHERE IS OUR JOBS BILL?? WHERE IS OUR HEALTH CARE COST REFORM? Get along and negotiate, or get rolled over in the next election. Good Luck ! Sincerely, Montgomery Lish.

It is past time for consumers to get a fair shake after all the fraud and deception hoisted on this country via the big banks and credit card companies. Confirm Rich Cordray NOW and let him get on with his job--unless you are admitting that you don't care about consumers, and you're only interested in allowing these crooks to continue to cheat consumers! Which is it??

It is exasperating that the Republican Party has spent the last 4+ years defying the will of the majority of the American electorate. President Obama won the election. He had a majority of the popular vote and the electoral college. We are supposed to be a country in which the majority rules. The only reason the opposition wants the CFPB to be ruled by a committee is to weaken the protection for the public. They should stop lining their pockets at the expense of the American people and let the Democratic process function as it was intended to function. Their actions over the last 8 years are the very reason that me, most of my friends and family Bush. NO MORE !!!! I'VE HAD IT !!!

I hope my senators do not need reminding from me to strongly support Rich Cordray's confirmation. Cordray is an all-too-rare individual whose skills AND PERFORMANCE RECORDS confirm commitment to service of ordinary citizen and community well-being now and long-term. This nation flounders while "privileged insiders" maintain control of policy for benefit of self and cronies. Those who are corrupt must be replaced by Individuals such as Cordray at every opportunity.

This CFPB is absolutely necessary and it needs powers and tools to do it's job. Especially since Glass-Steagal has not been re-instated. Especially since MERS is still in use. Lawlessness in finance needs to be addressed, not shirked because of fear, or conflict of interest.

The confirmation of Mr Cordray is needed now! The voting public is so very tired of the obstructionism.....the next election will drive that point even deeper into the "Party of No"! When will they finally get the picture??

Forgive me for stating the obvious - there is a war going on. It is the class warfare the Muppets forthe ruling class have waged against the real creators of wealth - the working stiff - from the beginning of class stratification. We need a strategy that compels that class to respect US. Let them cook and clean for themselves, and we should only patronize establishments that honour a good days work! Signing this petition is the least I can do!

Unless some is CLEARLY not qualified, the confirmation of presidential appointees should not be held up in the Senate by either party. The president gets to choose who he wants to serve and the confirmation process is just to prevent a clearly unqualified person from getting the job. Using that process for political purposes because of other things one does not like is a travesty, especially from those who claim to honor democracy and the Constitution!

While I have little confidence in Congress - as a result of the continued acceptance of rules which have no standing in a representative governmental system- I will submit a vote for an agency which is only a small step towards regulating our financial system. The world-wide financial collapse will probably take place anyway.

The filibuster was never intended to be used for this kind of hostage-taking: it was intended to ensure that the minority would have a full opportunity to be heard ON THE SUBJECT BEING FILIBUSTERED. You've had your say about the nominee - and in fact don't appear to object to him, just to the agency he will lead. Now shut up and let the process proceed. If you don't like the MANDATE given to the CFPB, you're free to propose legislation to change it.

William Todd
Strafford, NH 03884
Mar 30, 2013

To be delivered to: The United States Senate Petition Statement The CFPB was created to address the huge problem of abusive and deceptive banking and lending, which caused an epidemic of foreclosures, saddled millions of Americans with unmanageable debt, and triggered an ongoing economic calamity. Under Rich Cordray's leadership, the CFPB has ably begun to fulfill its mission by returning nearly half a billion dollars to consumers cheated by credit card companies; moving to end the era of mortgages designed to rake in up-front fees before they self-destruct; standing up for students and families trapped in high-cost education loans; and protecting military families against illegal foreclosures and deceptive education-loan practices. It is doing all this and more, while operating with refreshing candor and transparency and outreach to the public, and with steady oversight from Capitol Hill. Director Cordray has been re-nominated to serve a full term. His leadership has won praise from Republicans and Democrats, and from bankers and consumer advocates. And yet, for two years, a group of Senators has held his appointment hostage.. To those Senators we say: It is time to change your position. We need the CFPB to be effective. We urge you to reject the use of the confirmation process - and the filibuster - to undo legislation passed by wide majorities in the House and Senate, signed by the President, and supported by large majorities of the public. The choice before the Senate is simple: allow an up-or-down vote on this nomination, or open the door to more of the slippery financial practices that the CFPB is working hard to prevent. That would be terrible not only for consumers but for responsible lenders and the broader economy.

Big bankers have played with our money, losing trillions of dollars of American wealth, at the expense of the poor and middle class, yet we've bailed them out rather than helping out those who really need it, and now while there are riding high, paying themselves huge bonuses while the rest of us are stuck in the mud, there are still some lapdog senators and congressmen doing the rich corporations' bidding, trying to prevent any meaningful reform or regulation, and holding up this well-deserved nomination. The rich keep getting richer, the rest of us poorer; our country looks ripe for another great depression, a revolution/civil war or both.

There simply is no intellectually respectable reason to oppose an effective Consumer Financial Protection Bureau. For those who agree that the interests of American consumers are best served buy an effective Director for this agency, there is no good or honorable reason to oppose Rich Cordray to continue as the Director.

Fairness and truth in business - less deception, accountability, integrity. I'd like to see more of this, and this protection bureau is a needed check and balance in a society and governemtn that runs on lobbying. Consumers also need representation - in fact, more due to their inability to get the facetime and offer the campaign contributions that lobbyists do.

I've had it--'too big to fail, too big to jail'; mortgage fraud; credit default swaps INVENTED by these banks who couldn't even keep straight what was on their own books; banks trying to foreclose on properties that they NEVER had mortgages on in the first place; payday loans at 400% interest; the entire financial sector is out of control and the Senatorial nonsense of blocking confirmation of appointments only drags the Senate to the level of perfidy of those financial criminals.

It is to be regretted that the rich and powerful too often bend the axe of government to their selfish purposes, and when the laws undertake to make the rich richer and the potent more powerful, the farmers, mechanics, and laborers; who have neither the time nor means of securing like favors to themselves, have a right to complain of the injustice of their government. If some Senate Republicans say they need more time to debate Rich Cordray's nomination, then Mr. Reid should allow that debate - and nothing but that debate. Let no other business be done until the Republicans are ready to move on. Go back to the core value of the filibuster - and let the American people see the power of this fully armed and operational obstructionism.

the CFPB was created to address the huge problem of abusive and deceptive banking and lending which caused an epidemic of foreclosures, saddled millons of Americans with unmanageable debt, and triggered an ongoing economic calamity. under Rich Cordray's leadership, the CFPB has ably begun to fulfill its mission by returning nearly half a billion dollars to consumers cheated by credit card companies; moving to end the era of morgages designed to rake in up-front fees before they self-destruct; standing up for students and families trapped in high-cost education loans and protecting military families against illegal foreclosures and deceptive education-loan practices. it is doing all this and more while operating with refreshing candor and transparency and outreach to the public, and with steady oversight from Capitol hill.

My family is one of those American family's who had an excellent 12 year credit rating, never late on payments, who was cheated by credit card companies.. I am sick of the corruption. Sick of being taken advantage of with no where to go to see justice meted out. If a half Billion was returned to the consumer under Rich Cordray’s leadership I am all for his confirmation. Fraud is fraud no matter how you try to change the face of it..

The obstruction of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau by the Senate Republicans is unconscionable given all the complaints they lodged about Democratic Senators filibustering President Bush's un-Constitutional legislation. This is a perfectly reasonable request, an up-or-down vote on the confirmation of Rob Cordray.

I don't understand: isn't a majority vote what is required in the Senate? Since when does the Senate need 60 votes to get anything done? This long-running cowardice from the Democrats has done tremendous damage to the country.

There is a correct way to change the laws you do not like; filibustering a nominee for the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau IS NOT the correct way to get the changes you would like to see, it only obstructs the work of a voice to assist consumers. Please STOP blocking this vote; allow the vote to proceed, debate the merits or weaknesses of the candidate and vote your conscious. Let's allow this agency to work the way it is supposed to in order to assist consumers from baeing abused by corporations and banks!

Think of America's needs. Think of the American people. Think of our troops serving their country. Do your job--stop the obstructionism. You owe the American people 5 years of the people's work. The American people vote for some of you and others out of office. Once in congress --you work for the lobbyists and their corporate clients. Support our troops who make the ultimate sacrifice. Where is your sacrifice? President John F. Kennedy said--The work of congress is to do the Pledge to end filibusters and obstructionism. Do the people's work." Do it--immediately.

I have lived a long time and I can honestly say that I have never seen men in the Republican party and members of the Congress and Senate that can't catch on that they lost....usually, the men love the country, show respect for the winning administration and step up to the plate to cooperate. If only members of the Democratic fold hadn't put trust in President Bush and voted with him....for the War in Iraq. now...these same people bow their neck on a daily basis. I wish they could all be fired.

This is one of the few legislative bills that came out of the gigantic financial melt down of 2008. I hope you are not one of the senators who is considering blocking an up or down vote for Mr.Cordray. In fact, I hope you are supporting him. I have previously expressed my conviction that every president should be allowed to appoint people of his choice to carry out his job. Opposition should be rare and filibusters should be rarer still.

These obstructionists are not interesterd in the welfare of the people, they are only interested in their own welfare. They have a lot of nerve collecting their paychecks and their fat entitlements, which we all pay for. Jerks! Idiots! And those terms are the polite ones! We are sick of them nd will do everything we can to send them back to the private sector. A company or corporation would fire them very quickly for this type of behavior.

Obstructionism like this is the reason why approval ratings -- for the House, specifically, and the Congress generally -- are so abysmal. Don't think we aren't paying attention to this and other appointments that are languishing because a particular few Senators are being particularly obtuse. Let this nominee have his vote, up or down, fair and square, or else.

Those holding up the confirmation of Rich Cordray are partisan, un-American, and clear examples of the dissolute and dysfunctional nature of some members of Congress who were elected to serve their constituents, but instead act as marionettes for their party & puppet masters. Come on, Senators. The least you can do to protect the public is to support the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau...and confirm Rich Cordray. It was YOUR getting rid of oversight of the banking system that got us into the financial mess we are in today. (along with Bush's waging a war without paying for it.) We the People want protection of consumers.

The proper staffing and support of CFPB -- including the appointment of Richard Cordray -- is in the best interest of the American public. Republican hindrance of this process is a clear abdication of their legislative responsibility and a clear indication of how corporate monies have corrupted the political process in the US.

I have total confidence in OUR Maryland Senators to do what is right for us and for the country. My request is to ask them (our responsible Senators) what THEY can do to convince some of those hapless so-called "Senators" who place hatred of the President above the needs of their own constituents? Is it a lost cause or is there a chance that they too may be shamed into thinking of the nation's best interests...for a change? Doubtful.
