

May 23, 2016

Dear Representative,

On behalf of Americans for Financial Reform, we are writing to reiterate our opposition to HR 4139, the “Fostering Innovation Act”.<sup>1</sup>

This legislation would double the length of the existing exemption from compliance with Sarbanes Oxley Section 404(b) for “emerging growth companies”, from five years to ten years. The exemption granted in HR 4139 applies to companies with $50 million or less in annual gross revenues.

Section 404(b) of Sarbanes-Oxley requires the auditor of a public company to attest to the accuracy of the company’s financial reporting. This requirement was passed in response to the accounting scandals of the late 1990s, which revealed widespread deception and fraud in financial reporting. More recent research by the GAO has found that companies exempted from auditor attestation requirements have a higher frequency of accounting restatements, indicating that the financial reporting at such companies is deficient.<sup>2</sup> Such accounting restatements are harmful both to investors and to the companies themselves, by virtue of making it harder to raise capital.

We believe that the five year exemption provided for in the JOBS Act is already ample time for a publicly held company with tens of millions of dollars in revenue to develop the capacity to provide fully reliable and accurate financial statements. Ten years is an excessively long exemption. This is especially true given the significance to the public and the financial markets of accurate financial reporting. Congress should reject H.R. 4139.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Americans for Financial Reform
